We plan on having a mapping meeting to kind of get it all figured out before I have one with you all. We will need to figure out the most need and what the coverage for a drone will be. I will get with Ethan Bailey or someone to help figure that out. He was showing us on the map where we would have flight coverage depending on where we placed the docking station.

Really glad to hear that went well! If there are any problem intersections or locations where you still think a live cam would be good, let us know and we can come up with some alternate locations that will still capture what you want (if possible).

Thank you!
Brian
